

Jonas Oliveira holds a PhD in Accounting from the School of Economics and Management, University of Minho, Portugal. Since 2015, he is an Assistant Professor of Accounting at ISCTE-IUL Business School, Lisbon and since 2019 the Vice-Director of the Business Research Unit (BRU-IUL). He has previously worked (2004-2015) at the University of Aveiro as an Adjunct Professor of Accounting. His research interests are corporate risk reporting, corporate governance mechanisms, impression management strategies used corporate reporting, sustainability and integrated reporting. He publishes academic articles in some well-recognized journals such as the Managerial Auditing Journal, Australian Accounting Review, Corporate Communications: an International Journal, Meditari Accountancy Research, European Business Review, Journal of Banking Regulation, Journal of Financial Regulation and Compliance, and Journal of Risk. He is a member of the Editorial Board of the Accounting and Finance Research. He has own some best papers awards. He was also editor of four international books related to Financial Accounting and Public Sector Accounting. Recently, he has researched on topics related to corporate social responsibility and integrated reporting. Currently, he supervises several PhD students on topics such as integrated reporting, taxation, corporate social responsibility and risk reporting (enterprise risk management).