12. Course objectives: Public-private partnership (PPP) refers to agreements between private sector entities and public sector entities under which private sector entities provide infrastructure or infrastructure-based services that serve public tasks. Such hybrid forms of implementing public tasks are becoming more and more popular in the world but also in Poland. The aim of the course is to present the PPP concept, to familiarize students with the basic PPP models and decision problems in the area of PPP and methods of supporting decisions on involvement in such projects.
