

Martin Dominguez Ball

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, Dominguez Ball moved to New York in the mid-1980s. He is a multidisciplinary artist with a BFA in graphic design and a MFA in interdisciplinary arts. A prolific creator, Martin's paintings, drawings and sculptures have been well-received in galleries in New York City and beyond. Additionally, he is a professional filmmaker, graphic designer and a professor of fine arts and graphic design.

"Whether working with paint and pens on a canvas, sculpting, making music or creating in digital media," said the artist, "I seek to compose imaginative and graphically appealing images that capture the essence everyday life in surprising and beautiful ways. I approach every art or design project as an opportunity to challenge myself as an artist and as a human being. I think of my art as a thought rooted in knowledge, a voice wanting to be heard, and a statement ready to be said. It is for an audience of thousands as well as an audience of one. It does not seek acceptance but a willingness to converse."
